FIRST DROWNING OF SEASON.

THE accidental drowning of a 12-year-old boy of New Orleans, while on an outing at Henderson Point, Sunday afternoon, was cause for much sorrow and regret.

The fell from a boat in which he was riding with his sister and others who had accepted an invitation of a man whose identity was not learned. Just before the ride the boy had cut his head on a shell while bathing and had been forbidden by his parents to go into the water again. However, permission was granted for the boat ride.

The boy sank immediately and although every effort was made to save him, all proved fruitless. His body was carried away by the current and was located Monday morning.

This death by drowning was the first this season and it is hoped will be the last. Thousands of week-enders fill the beach at this particular bathing place and more and more precautions are being advanced to protect the swimmers. Life lines are stretched and life guards are always in attendance. This drowning was purely accidental and unavoidable.

Intoxicated drivers of automobiles should be put in jail—that's where they belong.

Every man and woman should take time for healthy exercise even if it puts the doctors on a sit-down strike.

ADVICE TO PARENTS: "BUY IT."

THE ECHO feels sure that it is rendering a distinct service to all parents of this county when it urges them, if they have not already done so, to send ten cents to the Children's Bureau, U. S. Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., for a copy of the bureau's 100-page book, entitled "Child Management."

We have called attention to this book before and understand that more than a million copies of the first edition have been distributed. This indicates that American parents are interested in their children and that many of them realize the need of correct information on habits, feeding, sex instruction, independence, obedience, punishment and a score of other problems.

Scientists may argue about the relative value of heredity and environment all they please but it is certain the latest information on child welfare, can do something to help their children develop. So, if you have children running around the home, buy yourself a copy of this book and read it carefully.

Peace-loving nations, willing to live and let live, might as well get together to exert their combined pressure for peace.

With better times the swindlers dress up old schemes and the public, eager to get something for nothing, furnish the dough.

ARE YOU HYPERSENSITIVE?

ASSERTING that many drownings are caused by individuals going into cold water when their physical condition makes such a plunge dangerous, Dr. Bayard T. Horton, of the Mayo Clinic, issues a warning to those hypersensitive to cold. Exposure to cold may result in fainting and if this happens in the water, it will be fatal, perhaps.

Dr. Horton advises bathers to test themselves by putting a cube of ice on the forearm for a minute. If, three or four minutes later, a swelling appears on the arm, the patient is hypersensitive to cold and should never plunge into cold water.

We pass this along for the benefit of bathers who sometimes wonder why they "hate" to go into cold water and avoid the much-advertised cold baths of their friends.

Such matters as these may seem of small consequence to the average reader but may in the long run when observed save a human life.

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau expects to collect an extra $50,000,000 as a result of the President's letter against tax evaders and avoiders. With the subject being investigated, many taxpayers will send in payments which might otherwise escape income tax sleuths.

LEADS IN MEMBERSHIP QUOTA.

THE Mississippi American Legion not only has one of the largest memberships this year that it has enjoyed in the history of the organization, but it surpassed any other state of the Union in its membership quota, and will be the "spear-head" at the 24 hours parade at the National Legion Convention in New York City in September, will have the pick of the hotel accommodations there, and the most prominent seats in the convention hall, according to information from prominent legionnaires. Truly the American Legion of the Grand Old State of Mississippi marches on, and is accomplishing much in the training of better citizens among its members.

The President has designated the period from September 17, 1937 through April 30, 1939 as one of commemoration of the one hundred fiftieth anniversary of the signing and the ratification of the Constitution. The Constitution was signed on September 17, 1887, and George Washington was inaugurated for the first time on April 30, 1789.

OUR ANNUAL "ACCIDENT TAXES"

TRAFFIC deaths in this country, during the first five months of 1937, increased 17 per cent over the same period of 1936, says the National Safety Council, which estimates that the death rate per 100,000,000 vehicle miles moved up from 14.4 in 1936 to 14.9 in 1937.

From the same source we learn that "accident taxes" in 1936, including all accidents, amounted to $120 a second or $3,700,000,000; that one person was injured every three seconds and that one death occurred every five minutes.

Deaths from motor vehicle accidents in Mississippi reached the enormous total of 525 in 1936 states Dr. R. N. Whitfield, director of vital statistics. Dr. Whitfield says there are many causes for these deaths, and a list of the following: (1) When cars or trucks hit pedestrians in 1936, 148 were killed. (2) When collided in 1936—38 deaths occurred. (3) When trucks collided in 1936—26 deaths. (4) When trucks and cars collided—26 deaths. (5) From collisions of cars and trains—29 deaths. (6) Collisions of cars and trucks with immovable objects—17 deaths. (7) Cars leaving road and turning over—71 deaths. (8) Trucks leaving road and turning over—41 deaths. (9) Individuals falling from cars and trucks, and from unknown causes—105 deaths.

These figures are enough to convince all readers of The Echo that the problem is big enough to engage the serious attention of every citizen. If for nothing but selfish reasons, it seems, every citizen should strive to be careful, to avoid taking unnecessary risks of any kind and to use caution before it is too late.

With the ever increasing week-end traffic over Highway 90, between Bay St. Louis and New Orleans accidents are being fewer and fewer. The highway is in perfect condition and it is generally noticed that drivers are being more careful and considerate of the other fellow.

Drive safely and sanely at all times—it will pay in the long run.

IS IT HOT ENOUGH?

THE hot days of the year are now upon us and while the summer heat may be broken by timely intervals of cooler days the people of the United States will now go thru their annual sweating.

In some instances they will flee to summer resorts, such as the unbeatable Mississippi Gulf Coast, to escape the effects of the sun. In others, they will set up a controlled routine designed to avoid excessive suffering from the weather. In a minority of cases, they will revel in air-conditioned habitations and places of work.

This brings to mind the fact that air-conditioning is a fast growing industry. The demand will increase and it may be that air-conditioning will turn out to be the new industry that emerges from the depression to set the ball rolling faster.

While the cost of air-conditioning may now be a bit high for most of our people it is confidently expected that enlarged production will bring down the price of such equipment. Backed by a selling policy that will compete with automobile financing the day is not far distant when thousands of homes and offices in this area will be air-conditioned.

The Mississippi Gulf Coast is naturally air-conditioned. The gulf breezes are ever present and while this section has some few exceptionally hot days as a rule the climate is pleasant during the hottest season of the year.

THE EARHART SEARCH

THE intensive search for Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Frederick Noonan, engaged the attention of the entire nation for several days and brought into action many units of the navy, as well as other agencies.

The aviators missed Howland Island 2,556 miles from their take-off, from Lae, New Guinea and in about the worst possible area for effective rescue work, 4,400 miles from the Pacific coast. The dash of the giant aircraft carrier Lexington from San Diego, with all its planes aboard, was a thrilling attempt to aid those lost somewhere in the vast ocean. Under full draft, the Lexington, one of the fastest ships in the navy, required a week to approach the area where her planes could go into action.

Miss Earhart left Miami, Fla., on June 1st for what she called her last flying adventure, landing the next day in Venezuela. From that point she flew to Dutch Guiana, then to Brazil, across the Atlantic to Senegal, then across Africa over the Sahara to the Sudan, to India, Burma, Siam, Dutch East Indies, Australia and finally to New Guinea, where she took off for her most difficult flight on July 1st, to become lost at sea the next day.

Up to press time the aviatrix and her flying companion have not been found.

BOY SCOUT JAMBOREE.

WASHINGTON has literally been besieged by the Boy Scouts in their National Jamboree for the past ten days. Unquestionably this gathering together of boys from all over the world has been a wonderful thing for the boys who were fortunate enough to have gone to Washington. The only regret about it is that all of the American youths do not belong to the Boy Scouts and could not make the trip. The boys were royally entertained and, in turn, entertained with equal success many of the adults of the nation's capital.

One of the most significant facts about the Jamboree was the uniform expression of opinion by the whole Capital City, official and otherwise, that it was one of the best behaved conventions that had ever gone to Washington. The boys and those who sponsored them are certainly entitled to the thanks of everyone for their most excellent behavior.

This is a great compliment to our American boys and goes to show what can be accomplished through scouting and what it does to make the boy a perfect citizen and what it means to his future both morally and physically.

Your neighbor has no right to keep you from reading The Sea Coast Echo, you can subscribe to it in your own name.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

SALUTE THE FLAG.

(Jackson Daily News)
THAT was a just rebuke to citizens of Jackson, and visitors in our midst, administered by Commander Sims, of The American Legion, when he said:

So few people uncovered or saluted when the American flag passed by in the Tuesday afternoon parade. Such lack of respect for the flag springs from ignorance, carelessness or unadulterated laziness.

It is a common fault, not merely in Jackson, but throughout the nation.

If you can't uncover, stand at attention or salute when the American flag passes by in parade then you don't deserve the protection of that flag.

Incidentally, a Mississippi law requires that the American flag float in front of each school building in the commonwealth during school terms. It's being done in many places.

Some school trustees would rather buy footballs than flags.

FOOLISH FISHES.

(Jackson Daily News)
GAME and Fish Commissioner Si Corley has launched his far-flung program to rescue the poor fishes marooned in ditches and barrow pits that have been drying up since hot weather set in—fishes that came in with flood waters and didn't have sense enough to swim out.

GOSSIP.

(Clarksdale Register)
GOSSIP is given as the cause that provoked the killing of a 17-year-old Louisiana girl by a girl chum.

"You know how folks are," the sheriff said.

And Mr. T. M. Hederman in the Jackson Daily Clarion-Ledger observes:

"Yes, we know. Every newspaperman knows. . . Gossip is deadly. It destroys reputations, inflicts pain, creates misery, breaks up homes, wrecks lives, nothing quite so soul-chilling inspires murder and suicide. . . Judge not lest ye be judged! Gossip not only destroys reputations of others; but there is nothing quite so soul-chilling and self-destructing as a bitter tongue for the person who condemns others and despitely uses them. Some day we may discover that all of the raging emotions within the soul against others is the maker of that individual's destiny. The forked tongue of gossip creates emotional fires that burn the individual engaged in it."

Si says, says he, that he plans to rescue about a million fishes—or is it one hundred million fishes? Numbers make no difference.

Somebody, aside from the workers, ought to be on hand to kiss each foolish fish in the face when rescued.

INTERESTING NEWS ITEMS OF THE MOVIES AND FILM FOLK IN HOLLYWOOD

AMONG actresses who have been sick recently are Jean Parker, Margaret Lindsay and Barbara Stanwyck. A poison spray which was used on vegetables is the cause of their illness.

Jane Withers' mother was offered a small part in one of her daughter's pictures but she refused the offer.

The engagement of Anne Shirley and John Howard Payne has been announced. The wedding will take place during the Fall.

In the play, "Dead End," Marjorie Main plays the part of Baby Face Nelson's mother. In one scene she slaps her son's face. A Hollywood producer was so impressed by her blows that he hired her for the same part in the screen version. Humphrey Bogart will play the part of the son.

Simone Simon who had planned to stay in Europe until Fall, has been recalled to take the lead in the next Ben-Gurion-Walter Winchell picture which will be entitled "Love and Hisses."

Anita Loos and John Emerson, co-authors of "San Francisco," "Red Headed Woman" and other successful stories have signed up with Goldwyn and their first stunt for the new boss will be "Spring of My Heart," starring Merle Oberon and Gary Cooper.

Plans are being made by MGM to feature Fanny Brice. She may make her first screen appearance in "As Thousands Cheer."

Judy Canover, radio entertainer, who first appeared on the screen in "Artists and Models" will be featured in "Summer Romance."

Janet Gaynor, who made such a wonderful comeback in "A Star is Born," has been signed by Selznick for one picture a year—the first to be "Angel On Broadway."

Because of disagreement over "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," Henry Potter retired as director. Altho Tommy Kelly will keep the title role it is understood that several of the present cast will be replaced by other actors.

Loiselle Barrymore has withdrawn from the cast of "Wells Fargo" because of an injury to his leg.

Jimmy Durante is to return to the screen in a picture entitled, "College Hero."

Parkyakarkus and his wife, Thelma Leeds, have been spending awhile in New York.

Although Delores del Rio and Constance Bennett were tested for the second lead in "Stand-In," a comparative newcomer, Marie Shelton, was given the role. Miss Shelton had a minor part in "52nd Street."

James Stuart is to be launched on his career as a strong, silent man of the movies in "The Bad Man of Brimstone." He is to co-star with Wallace Beery.

Joseph Schildkraut gave up roles in three pictures to leave with his wife for London, where Mrs. Schildkraut's mother is seriously ill. The actor played the role of a German Prince in "The Life of a Lancer Spy."

And Now, Vacations

THERE are some mild drawbacks to starting on a vacation—one of which is, undoubtedly, packing. A much more important one is the problem of how to carry one's money so that it will be safe and convenient.

Travelers Checks fulfill both of these requirements. They can be purchased in various denominations; they are handy in size and form—they are accepted generally in place of cash.

YOU CAN BUY THEM HERE.

FLASH!! Gulf Theater

Waveland, Miss.

Proudly announces the coming soon of the year's greatest extravaganza—Colossal Musical—the production that the people of New Orleans have not been able to see due to the FEDERAL COURT OF NEW ORLEANS HAVING RESTRAINED THE RELEASE OF THIS PRODUCTION IN NEW ORLEANS.

This court litigation was brought on by the Major Canal Street Theaters trying to secure first-run of this production in New Orleans. So now is your chance to see the sensation of the year—

BEAUTIFUL GRACE MOORE in

'WHEN YOU'RE IN LOVE'

Sunday and Monday, July 25-26.

Mild, mellow, old Southern tobacco tamped in your companionable pipe—a careful lighting—and you settle back to mull over a knotty problem, count your blessings—or just dream.

Deep, satisfying pleasure, isn't it, neighbor? But look into the curling smoke again. See those long lines of freight cars gliding through space on gleaming steel—through blistering heat or numbing cold—storm or fair weather? That's the L & N, my friend, bringing from all sections of the South the choice tobacco you enjoy so much.

Perhaps it has never occurred to you what an important part the L & N plays in keeping your pipe filled, your home warm in the winter, your corner grocer stocked with meats and garden-fresh vegetables. But 28,000 loyal L & N employees know, and they constantly strive to make the service you receive safe, dependable and satisfactory.

Supplying the needs of your daily life is just one of the hundreds of ways in which the L & N tries to be of friendly service—a good neighbor in all that the term implies.

WITH THE FISHERMEN.

By Cantcha Ketchum.

UNUSUALLY hide tides each day and occasional squalls have hindered fishing temporarily, however conditions are improving and several good catches have been reported.

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Boyles and guests Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Goodwin and son of Jacksonville Texas, enjoyed a fishing trip Tuesday to Bayou Caddy. A boat was secured from Ladner's camp and several varieties of fish were caught including some nice speckles. The men took their luck at soft shell crabbing Monday night but the high tide spoiled their hopes. Mr. Goodwin and son are ardent fishermen and never overlook an opportunity to fish.

A new center to the Coast Walter Scott Morrill who hails from Chicago and who recently moved to his newly purchased home "Twin Oaks" is an ardent fisherman of no mean character. He has been doing quite a bit of fishing lately and has made some nice catches. Welcome to the fish column Brother Morrill.

An unusual specie of red fish was caught by Bill Smith of Pass Christian this week in the Louisiana marshes that weighed 5½ pounds. The fish was spotted from head to tail instead of having just one spot on its tail. The fins were the only red spots on the body. It is said by the boys at Red Star Fish market where it was seen to be the 1938 stream line red fish.

The July 12th issue of "Life" shows pictures of Andy Wheat originally from Bay St. Louis as the original "Andy Gump" of comic strip fame. Andy must surely be a fisherman as one picture shows him with fishing pole in one hand and a large fish in the other. The kind of fish not revealed.

August Tarzetti, of De Lisle, reports some good catches of red fish and green trout in Bayou De Lisle. This section is known for its large red and green trout are caught in abundance. Bayou DeLisle joins Wolf river at this spot.

Rev. A. J. Gmelch with Father Wm. Leech and party left this morning from Gulfport where they will make a trip out to the Island to try for Mackerel. This party have had several successful trips this season always returning with some mackerel and other species.

A ladies fishing party composed of the Misses Margaret Broom, Frances Ladner, Yvonne Ladner, Alice Schauberg and Isabelle Schauberg spent Sunday in Waveland. They enjoyed the trip and returned home with a nice string of speckles caught by the lady anglers.

MR. AND MRS. LEO E. KENNEY ENTERTAIN FOR DAUGHTER'S BIRTHDAY.

MR. and Mrs. Leo E. Kenney honored their beautiful and accomplished young daughter, Irma May, with a delightful party on the occasion of her seventh birthday. About thirty little friends participated in the games played and prizes were awarded the winners.

The spacious dining room was a profusion of balloons and the table was lovely with its delicate pink decorations, carried out even to the refreshments. A large pink birthday cake proved the delight of the afternoon for it represented a Circus, the candle holders being miniature animals.

When the evening drew to an end all too quickly the many guests reluctantly bid their gracious little hostess "adieu" and carried with them happy memories, that will not soon be forgotten.

GUESTS AT BRIDE HOME FOR BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

Miss Theone Bribe and Miss Isabelle Kingswill spent two weeks on the Gulf Coast as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Bribe, Sr. While here Miss Bribe celebrated her fourteenth birthday. Among other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Bribe, Jr., and son Albert III; Miss June Benedict, Mr. George Steele, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Curry and son, W. J. Curry, Jr.

ENJOY TRIP TO CAT ISLAND ABOARD YACHT "RHEA."

A delightful outing was given on Friday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Robinson on their Yacht "Rhea" to Cat Island. Quite a number of the younger set enjoyed the bathing at the island. A supper was served later. A large bon fire made and marshmallows roasted, then the wonderful trip home. The guests were Marion Chapman, Carolyn Griffith, Nancy Bibbs, Josie Rita Olson, Carolyn Marshall and others.

—Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Boyles have as guests for a short stay, Rev. Boyles' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. Glenn Goodwin and son, of Jacksonville, Texas. Mr. Goodwin is a prominent merchant and Rotarian of that city.

—Mr. Chas. A. Breath, Sr., Roger Boh, Lillian and Billie Olson and Josie Rita Olson enjoyed the Regatta at Biloxi. Josie Rita sailed with Chappie Marshall in one of the races on Chappie's Snipe, but an unfortunate break down kept them from winning the prize.

—Mr. and Mrs. Leo Koerner have as their house guests, Mr. Koerner's brother, and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koerner and children of Needsville, Texas. Mr. Koerner is a former resident of Bay St. Louis.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Clark, who have been visiting in Columbus, Ohio and neighboring cities was joined by her husband, Mr. Clark in Laurel, Miss., where they were guests of relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were accompanied on their return trip back to Bay St. Louis by Mrs. Clark's father, Mr. Crenshaw of Laurel.

—Capt. and Mrs. K. C. McIntosh of New Orleans, are guests of Mrs. W. J. Chapman in North Beach. Mrs. McIntosh was actively interested in the Library last year and both Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh will be pleasantly remembered by their many friends here who are glad to again have them back. They will be here for a short stay.

—Miss Louise Carrere of Waveland, had as her guests, Miss Helen Stafford, Miss Margaret Denechoud, Messrs. Charles Lancaster, C. Derickson and E. Stoutz, all of New Orleans. Miss Carrere is a popular member of the younger set in New Orleans and on the Coast, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed C. Carrere of both cities.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Nicholson's son, Jerry is following in his distinguished father's foot steps to be a yachtsman. He is the proud possessor of a full rigged sail boat, and is only seven years of age. He will soon be able to sail with the fleet at Breath's beach where he will find strong competition of his own age, principally Bobbie Boh who sails this boat like a veteran.

F. D. R. RECORD

A selection of public documents dealing with Mr. Roosevelt's Administration as Governor of New York and through his first term as President is being prepared for publication next year. The first volume will handle his Albany term of office and one volume will be devoted to each of the four years at the White House. Subsequently, it is planned to bring out supplemental volumes covering the second term.

A Break for Baby

If your infant isn't the first-born he's pretty bound to fall heir to odds and ends of cast-offs—the old high chair, the crib and the toys of those who came before. The poor little child probably wouldn't know the difference himself, but he does deserve the very best there is, and just because a thing is old and a bit marred and scarred doesn't mean its days of usefulness and particularly, the days of beauty, are over. Tackle that crib first—give yourself that "brand new" thrill by creating beauty where beauty just isn't at the moment. Drop in at your local paint store and get a paint brush and a can of enamel in any one of a dozen grand colors—the baby's furniture needn't be limited to soft pinks and ornate yellows. Greens, grays, whites, even reds. He'll grab for that color just as he does for his rattle or his bottle. Just one coat of this splendid paint and gone are the scars of yesterday, and a bright, shining, washable surface is yours. Sanitation and babies go together. Things just must be washable. That's why this enamel surface is so very fine for the child's furniture—for his toys, too, which take such punishment in the way of dirt, grease and smudges. It's fun to use this paint, too. You can transform that dirty little elephant into a gay dream of beauty with a red ban. On his back, Donald Duck may need a new suit of clothes, and there it is, right in the can. Little cans are obtainable in many different shades and small brushes cost but a few cents. So you can afford to really "go to town" on furniture, and still not put the daily budget in the red.

If I fail to make life easier for some one has life for me been a failure?

ANDREW J. BOYLES, Pastor.

C. I. O.

The C. I. O. drive among government workers will probably not result in any strikes but may develop friction in some departments and lead to open fire-ups.

Banking prospects for second half of 1937, regarded as encouraging following contradictory developments in first half.

VIGILANTES.

The organization of vigilante groups in various parts of the country is causing some official concern because of its tendency to array middle-class elements against laboring groups. If the movement spreads, it will inevitably compel the government to assert its power in labor disputes, even to the extent of instituting upon authority to enforce arbitration and the execution of contracts.

Roper warns that public "will not" "forbear unnecessary strife" between capital and labor.

Roosevelt warns United States would suffer from a war abroad in message to Virginia Institute.
